Numb. 11615.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 18, to Tuesday November 21, 1775.

St. James's, November 20.

THE following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Berks, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Bartholomew Price, Eſq; High Sheriff of the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Berks.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, loyal, and affectionate Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Berks, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne with the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our ſteady Attachment to your Majeſty's and this Nation's united Cauſe, in Oppoſition to the inſolent Efforts of all the Enemies of Peace, Order, and good Government, wherever exerted by factious Clamour, or by rebellious Inſurrection.

An Experience, coeval with your Majeſty's Reign, hath taught us, that your Majeſty's firſt and moſt zealous Aim hath been to win the Affection and chearful Obedience of all your Subjects, by all thoſe Methods of Indulgence, Patronage, and Gentleneſs, which do, in the Nature of Things, tend to diſpoſe the Minds of Men to ſubmit themſelves, with all Thankfulneſs, to ſo patriotic a Sovereignty: And we cannot, without the deepeſt Concern, obſerve, that the Event of ſo gracious a Trial hath, through the treacherous Workings of Republican Malevolence, ſo totally diſappointed your Majeſty's juſt and reaſonable Expectations, and thoſe of all good Men; and that the Good-Will and Lenity, which pervade and adorn all your Majeſty's Meaſures of Government, have ſerved only to raiſe, to animate, to inflame the ſtubborn Spirit of Inſult and Rebellion, eſpecially in your Majeſty's late highly favoured Provinces in America.

The tender Emotions of Humanity, foreſeeing the Calamities of the Storm, which that Spirit hath raiſed, cannot but incline us to wiſh, that the common Sentiments of Gratitude had ſo duly operated in the Hearts of our Fellow-Subjects there, as to have retained them in their moſt bounden Duty of chearful Submiſſion to to thoſe mild Laws and equitable Regulations, with which the Legiſlature of their Mother Country hath an undoubted Right to require their moſt chearful Compliance.

Such Compliance, (againſt which no Pleas of Exemption have been offered but what Malice and Chicane have laboriouſly ſet up, to be, by plain Truth and Fact, with no Labour, overthrown) ſuch Compliance would happily have prevented that lamentable Indigence and Diſtreſs of the Rebel Provinces, that miſerable Effuſion of Chriſtian Blood, which, it is to be feared, are now become the neceſſary, though harſh Remedies of their peſtilential Diſeaſe.

And ſince an obſtinate and active Rebellion, ſubſiſting in any Part of your Majeſty's Dominions, can hardly fail, unleſs it be ſeaſonably ſuppreſſed, of producing Events highly calamitous to the Whole, and of Conſequence deeply afflictive to your Majeſty's paternal Heart, we do, with all that Alacrity and Zeal of Duty, which grateful Subjects owe to ſuch a Sovereign, aſſure your Majeſty, that we are firmly determined, with our utmoſt Ability and Influence, to ſupport ſuch vigorous Meaſures as your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Prudence, in Concert with that of the great Council of the Nation, may think proper to adopt, for reducing mad and ruinous Revolt to quiet and wholeſome Submiſſion; and for eſtabliſhing in it's full Force the Legiſlative Authority of Great-Britain over the Dominions of the Britiſh Crown in their wideſt Extent.

With no ſmall Satisfaction we foreſee, that, when your Majeſty's Firmneſs and Magnanimity ſhall have obtained this juſt Triumph over the Treacherous and Ungrateful, you will celebrate one more highly pleaſing to you, in "receiving the Miſled with Tenderneſs and "Mercy."

Bartholomew Price, Sheriff
BARRINGTON
Tho. Patten, D.D.
John Price
Edward Loveden Loveden
Richard Michell
John Charles Price
John Stevenſon, Vicar of Surton
John Mayor
Penyſton Powney
Clement Saxton
James Stonhouſe
Joſ. Benet
Charles Long
Henry Macock
Arthur Vanſittart
Thomas Stapleton
Archibald Blane
William Price
Leyd Richmond
John Allnatt
John Butler
Edmund Seymour
Charles Hatt
John Loder
John Tracy, D.D.
Cha. Wymondeſold
John Spicer
Henry Corker
John Eldridge
R. Price
William Hawkins
John Payne, jun.
Francis Stutchbery
James Powell
Richard Andrews
John Allder
Samuel Sellwood
William Tyrrell
George Knapp
Joſ. Kinder
James Fletcher
Thomas Stevens
Tho. Crapper, jun.
Chriſtopher Keen
Tho. Mattingly
J. Almond
J. Bowles
Thomas Juſtin
Richard Bowles, B.D.
John Bunce
Richard Stone
Thomas Bunce
Edward Child
William Bunce
Richard Cox
W. Bowles
Mark Higgins
Benjamin Badcock
Thomas Bradfield
Benjamin Griffith
John Glanvill
Richard Fletcher
Matthew Harper
William King
Richard Roſe
Thomas Nichols
Joſeph Penn
James Penn
Thomas Collihet
Iſaac Skillern
Richard Penn
Robert Coldrey
George Thompſon
John Flory
Robert Henry
John Runce
James Goldby
John Copeland
Charles Archer
Edward Hooper
Tho. Crapper, ſen.
Robert Brooks
John Surman
William Watts
Richard Kelway
John Honey
William Baker
Samuel Lewis
Joſ. Fiſher
R. Wells, A.M.
Thomas Payton
John Smeth
William Allder
James Cowling
John Nellor
John Bedwell
Thomas Couldrey
R. Covington
James Roſe
James Sadler
Charles Shury
John Goodbody
William Weſtbrook
John Payne
John Shury
Thomas Braize
John Pitman
Jeremiah Wright
Richard Stacy
William Boſher
James Huggins
Charles Gray
Jonathan Goodman
James Lovegrove
John Weſtbrook
Thomas Lawrence
Thomas Chapman
Joſeph Day
W. Goodluck, jun.
John Ball
William Toms
Edward Yates
Giles Weſtbury
Thomas Woodroffe
John Young
Geo. Woodward, B.D.
Ralph Price, A.M.
William Pain
Henry Curtis
John Petey
Thomas Butler
Robert Butler
Jo. Butler
Richard Hopkins
George Marſhall
Robert Simpſon
Joſeph Spooner
John Martin
Charles Golding
John Brind
Thomas Broad
George Towſey
Philip Brown, M.A
Joſeph Greggory
Thomas Sly
John Wilkins
John Wilkins, jun.
John Chapman
Gabriel Davis
John Dewe
Edward Lloyd
Richard Hopkins
James Stene
Jonathan Collins
Thomas Halliſax
M. Marett
John Loveday
Richard Wender
B. Anderſon
Joſ. Malliſon
John Kimber
Richard Lee
Henry Newell
William Noake
John Andrews
John Minchin
Henry Cullern
William Micklem
William Stevens
John Bullock
John Langton
W. Ward
Joſeph Cannon
James Atlee
Henry Emblin
Thomas Emblin
Richard Weſtbrook
Joſeph Lee
Richard Lambell
Henry James Pye
W. Mathew Burt
Robert Palmer
W. Cadogan
R. N. Neville
R. A. Neville
James Hayes
Thomas Cox
Edward Wiſe, jun.
Bry Richards
John Morton
Peregrine Furye
William Phillips
Anthony Pye
Walter Pye
John Walſh
William Birch
John Dodd
Charles Ambler
Charles P[illegible]
George Pitt
Thomas Round
David Bliſſett
Phil[illegible]p Phelp
Charles Marſh
James Hawkes
Charles Sturges
W. B. Cadogan
Thomas Hanſon
Stephen Chaſe
Edmund Bower
John Deane, jun.
Thomas White
John Higham
Peter Lovegrove
Michael Atwell
Jacob Glover
John Jones
John Hanſon
Lancelot Auſtwick
Samuel Johnſon
Thomas Willats
James Patey
John Lamb
David French
Samuel Still
Nathaniel Cliffold
William Holland
William Lyne
Thomas Newell
Edward Lawrence
William Dodwell, D.D.
James Payn

HALFPENNY

William

2067

William Chapman
John Weſtbrook
John Butterfield
John Gould
Richard Taylor
Abraham Darby
James Atlee
William Roſe
John Boult
John Clark
Francis Juſtice
Ralph Leyceſter, A. M.
Nathanael Butler
Abraham Robinſon
William Woodwell
Giles Colſell
M. Wiggins
John Weſtbrock, jun.
Giles Goldſmith
Richard Cotterel
William Whitfield
Joſhua Abear
William Stone

Thomas Sanders
Henry Colſell
Samuel Harding
Henry Newell
Abraham Boult
John Addidge
William Lee
John Cleeve
Giles Taylor
Richard Hopkins
William Davis
James Pile
Stephen Atlee
William Perry
B. Barlow
J. Lee
John Hall
John Sims
John Davis
John Douglas, D. D. Canon of Windſor
H. Boſcragon
Henry Whinfield
John Pilgrim
Richard Jephſon

Edward Bromley
John Buckeridge
Nicholas Trevanion
George Blount
Edward Tew
George Hatch
Thomas Moore
Thomas Lake
George Wallington
Ph. Doval, D. D. Canon of Windſor
John Boſtock, M. A.
William Pearſon
Richard Biggs
Adam Younger
Daniel Highmore
Edward Adams
George Brookland
Robert Hampden Pye
William Ward
John Bradley, A. M.
Joſeph Mould
Caleb Colton

Thomas Therle
Arthur Lloyd
Samuel Colborne
J. A. Lock
John Hannaford
Richard Wallis
Thomas Bice
James Bay
Thomas Pinchard

John Chamberlain
Thomas Baſkerville
John Nash
George Bright
Hugh Colborn
B. Limeburner
Thomas Smith
John Youngs
Daniel Robinſon

Benjamin Furner
Thomas Beckley
John Whiteway
William Elgar
Jo. Elgar
William Coward
Wm Curtis, Town-Serjeant

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Lymington, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Harry Burrard, Bart. One of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Lymington, with all Humility approach your Royal Preſence at this truly intereſting and alarming Criſis, and beg Leave to expreſs, in the warmeſt Terms, our moſt affectionate and inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

It is with the deepeſt Concern we behold that ſome diſaffected, turbulent, and deſigning Men, taking Advantage of your Majeſty's Lenity, have been able by Degrees, to deceive and delude ſo many of your Majeſty's Subjects in America; and to force others, by the moſt cruel Acts of Tyrrany and Oppreſſion, into an avowed and deteſtable Rebellion.

We cannot ſufficiently admire the Wiſdom and Lenity of your Majeſty's Councils, in preparing, with Firmneſs and Reſolution, the Means of ſuccouring and protecting the well-affected and much diſtreſſed Part of your Majeſty's Subjects; and of compelling the Refractory to pay a due Attention to their Dependance on the Parent State, and a proper Obedience to the Laws of our ineſtimable Conſtitution. Nor can any Thing render your Majeſty's Clemency more conſpicuous, than the Diſpoſition You have manifeſted of re-admitting to your gracious Favour and Protection ſuch of your Subjects as may voluntarily retract their Errors, and return to their Duty and Allegiance.

Senſible of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Vigilance to promote the Happineſs of all your People, and to ſecure to them inviolate the full Enjoyment of their Liberties, and all the juſt Rights and Privlieges delivered down to them from their Forefathers, we moſt ſolemnly aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall be ready to riſk every Thing we hold moſt dear, to keep the Dignity and Honour of the Crown unſullied, and to maintain and ſupport the Supreme Legiſlative Authority of Great Britain; which we know to be the only firm Baſis of the true Happineſs of your Majeſty's Subjects in every Part of your extenſive Dominions.

That your Majeſty may reign long and proſperous over an happy and united People, is the fervent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects,

George Burrard, Mayor
Harry Burrard, Recorder
John Sparrow
William Burrard
Tho. Shepard, ſen.
John Goodricke
J. Bond, jun.
Nathaniel Bond
Bolton Simpſon
Tho Beckley, jun.
Tho. Shepard, jun.
Joſ. Pearce
William Trattle
Harry Darby
John Browſe

Henry Penton
J. Bromfield
Henry Brownrigg
William Reynolds
William Hawkins
Thomas Winbolt
John Lind
Henry Maſter
Richard Bowles
W. A. Heywood
Henry Trattle
Wm. Sutherland
Nathaniel Phillips
Edward Hicks
William Orrett
John Orrett
James Newell

William Sparrow
William Huſe
John Edwards
William Cooper
James Newell
Ruſſell Skinner
John Sparrow, jun.
Thomas Grant
James Skutt
Tho. Brice, jun.
Charles Fluder
John Miller
William Lyne
Joſeph Bailey
Richard Templer
John Templer
Charles Colborne

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Common Council of the Town of Lochmaben, in Council aſſembled, has been preſented to His Majeſty by William Douglas, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Common-Council of the Town of Lochmaben, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, warmed with a grateful Senſe of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your benign Reign, humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of the juſt Senſe which we, and the Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of this Town whom we repreſent, have of them, and of our firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

Permit us, at the ſame Time, to aſſure your Majeſty, That we highly diſapprove of and deteſt the ſeditious and rebellious Conduct of ſome of your Majeſty's Colonies in North America; who, by the Arts of deſigning Men, have been ſeduced to reſiſt the juſt Authority of the Britiſh Legiſlature, and are aiming to throw off their Dependence on the Mother-Country.

Perſuaded, that the Commercial Intereſts of this Kingdom, as well as the Liberty, Security of Property, and all other ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under the Britiſh Conſtitution, can only be preſerved unto us, and continued to Poſterity, by firmly maintaining and ſupporting the Supremacy of the Britiſh Legiſlature over every Part of the Britiſh Dominions.

We highly approve both the prudent and ſpirited Meaſures taken by your Majeſty and your Parliament, for bringing back the deluded Colonies to their Duty, and preſerving unimpaired the Conſtitutional Rights of Great Britain over them; ſorry that the mild Meaſures, taken with them at firſt, failed to effectuate ſo deſirable an Event.

We therefore wiſh and humbly requeſt your Majeſty would ſtill purſue ſuch further vigorous Meaſures as you and the Wiſdom of your Parliament may judge neceſſary to bring it about, and ſecure, in Future, upon a permanent Eſtabliſhment, their Dependence on the Parent-State; aſſuring your Majeſty, that nothing in our Power, as loyal and dutiful Subjects, ſhall be wanting, on our Part, to aid and aſſiſt your Majeſty in ſo great a National Concern.

That your Majeſty may be long preſerved to continue the Bleſſings of a juſt and mild Government, over a free and undivided People, is our ſincere and ardent Wiſh.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Magiſtrates and Common Council of Lochmaben, the Thirteenth Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five.

William Hoggan, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Dublin, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl Harcourt, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Lord Viſcount Weymouth, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Dublin.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Dublin, ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and juſt Government, feel ourſelves at this Time indiſpenſibly called upon to expreſs our Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion exiſting in a Part of your American Dominions, and our higheſt Indignation at the ungrateful Revolt, by which the Government of the beſt of Kings hath been for ſome Time diſturbed in your Majeſty's Colonies.

With the utmoſt Sincerity and Zeal we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your Sacred Perſon and Government, which we are determined to

to ſupport, at the Hazard of our Lives, againſt all Hoſtility to your Royal Crown and Dignity, and to the violated Rights of the Britiſh Empire.

We cannot ſufficiently admire the Temper with which your Majeſty has acted, from your Paternal Anxiety to prevent, as long as poſſible, the Calamities which are inſeparable from a State of War; and we, with equal Concern and Regret, obſerve, that the Reſolutions of the Britiſh Parliament, breathing Moderation and Forbearance, have produced no other Effect on the deluded Minds of the diſobedient Part of your American Subjects, than Uſurpation and Rebellion.

We find, that the rebellious War, now levied in America, hath not been confined in it's Objects to Great Britain; for it appears in ſeveral of the American Reſolutions, that their Reſentments are alſo directed to the Trade of this Kingdom; and we glory in being conſidered, even by thoſe who injure us, as united with Great Britain, againſt all the Univerſe; and, as devoted to your Majeſty, againſt every Enemy upon Earth.

By your Majeſty's Arms was preſerved the very Exiſtence of this ungrateful People; by the Courage and Diſcipline of your Troops were they ſaved from the impending Danger of a powerful, and, till then, victorious Foe.——Ireland ſhared in that Triumph; and, we truſt, Ireland fervently wiſhes to ſee accompliſhed the glorious Taſk of reſtoring to the Americans that Liberty which is conſiſtent with the Laws of the Empire, and thoſe Comforts of Life, which intereſted and deſperate Agitators, with mercileſs Perſeverance, inſtigate them to forfeit.

'Tis indeed to be lamented they ſhould ſtill liſten to theſe reſtleſs Deluders, who, whilſt they affect to deprecate the Effuſion of Blood, call for the Shedding of it; and who by Efforts, as unavailing as unwarrantable, urge on the Deſtruction of thoſe, whom the whole Power of your Majeſty's inſulted Dominions are happily combined to ſubdue.

We acknowledge, with Gratitude, your Majeſty's Concern for our Commercial Advancement, upon which our Proſperity and Happineſs ſo exceedingly depend; and we truſt to your Majeſty's diſtinguiſhed Firmneſs and Wiſdom, to ſupport the Dignity, maintain the Rights, uphold the Conſtitution, and reſtore the Tranquillity of the Britiſh Empire.

Thomas Kennan, Sheriff	John Gilmer
Henry Lawes Luttrell, Foreman	Nic. Engliſh
	Hugh Bowen
Richard Morgan	Patrick King
Richard Trench	Charles Hamilton
Charles Euſtace	William Kean
Joſeph Serr	William Evans
Richard Underwood	Charles King
Henry Archdale	Benjamin Houghton
W. Hawkins, Ulſter	B. Connor
George Nixon	W. Leaver

Weſtminſter, November 20.

THIS Day His Majeſty came to the Houſe of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes ſeated on the Throne with the uſual Solemnity, Mr. Quarme, Yeoman Uſher of the Black Rod, was ſent with a Meſſage from His Majeſty to the Houſe of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the Houſe of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majeſty was pleaſed to give the Royal Aſſent to

An Act for continuing, and granting to His Majeſty, certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, for the Service of the Year, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Seventy-ſix.

And to Two Private Bills.

The King has been pleaſed to appoint Thomas Erſkine, Eſq; to be His Majeſty's Conſul at Gothenburg, Marſtrand, and the other Ports on the Weſtern Coaſt of Sweden.

Calais, November 15. The Cranbrook of London, Burthen 500 Tons, Charles Suttie, Maſter, laden with Cloth, Bales, and ſundry other Merchandize, bound for Jamaica, having been wrecked about Eight o'Clock, Yeſterday Morning, on the Goodwin Sands off Deal, Mr. Suttie, with four others, betook themſelves to the Pinnace, whilſt the reſt of the Crew and the Paſſengers got into the Long Boat; which laſt was, between Three and Four in the Afternoon, Yeſterday, driven aſhore on the Coaſt of Sangatte, off Fort Lapin, having on board Thirty Perſons, Mariners and Paſſengers: As ſoon as the People on Shore diſcovered the Long Boat in the Road, driving at the Mercy of the Winds and Waves, they flocked to the Coaſt, in order to be ready to give immediate Aſſiſtance to the unfortunate People, and by their Diligence and Activity moſt of the Perſons were ſaved, after having been expoſed for Six Hours to the Violence of the Storm.

Monſieur Porquet, the Commiſſary of the Marine at this Port, attended by a Surgeon, with the greateſt Humanity, afforded all poſſible Aſſiſtance to the unhappy Sufferers; and, by the Uſe of proper Methods, a Sailor and a Negro, who were taken up with little Signs of Life, were with great Difficulty perfectly recovered. This Morning the Bodies of Mrs. White and her Negro Woman Servant were found on the Shore.

The greateſt Humanity and Tenderneſs were ſhewn by Monſieur Porquet the Commiſſary of the Marine, the Phyſicians, Surgeons, and the Inhabitants in general, to theſe unfortunate People.

The following is a Liſt of the Crew and Paſſengers of the Cranbrook.

CREW.

Peter Adken, John Taller, Mates; Mr. Smith, Surgeon; William Colley, John Laurence, John Brown, David Anderſon, Joſeph Johnſon, John Dale, Daniel Smith, John Wilſon, William Lonaſs, Nicholas Boyſon, Anthony Jenkins, John Miller, Mariners; Daunken, the Captain's Negro. Gorden Davidſon, Quarter-Maſter; John Mills, Cabbin Boy; Anthony Coq, Le Sieur Jouſſon, a Paſſenger. The four laſt are miſſing ſuppoſed to be drowned.

PASSENGERS.

Miſs Elizabeth Darke; Miſs Anne Porter; Mrs. Scott, with two Women Servants, one of them a Black; George Greenwollers; William Wood; Mrs. White, and her Negro Woman Servant, found dead on the Shore; William, a Negro Boy, belonging to Mrs. Scott, died about half an Hour after he was brought on Shore.

The Five following Perſons, who got into the Pinnace, have not been heard of: Mr. Charles Suttie, the Maſter; Thomas Brag, Pilot; John Deard, Boatſwain; William Aldrich, Carpenter; George Sumeſtrome, Mariner.

N. B. The above Liſt, being copied from a French Account, poſſibly the Names may not be accurately ſpelt.

St. James's, November 18, 1775.

WHereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, that the Houſe of Mr. Richard Sandford, Baker, in Wincheſter-ſtreet in Broad ſtreet Ward, London, for ſeveral Sundays paſt has been attempted to be broken open by Robbers, upon which Account a Guard was placed with Fire-Arms in the Houſe; and that, on Sunday laſt, the ſame Attempt being again made about Six in the Evening, and the Houſe entered, the ſaid Guard ſhot the Foremoſt of the Gang: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in breaking open and entering the ſaid Houſe, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except ſuch of them as have returned from Tranſportation) who ſhall diſcover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he, ſhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SUFFOLK.

And, as a farther Encouragement, for the Diſcovery and bringing to Juſtice, the Perſon or Perſons concerned in the ſaid Burglary, a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS is promiſed to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall make Diſcovery of any concerned therein (except as before excepted) to be paid on Conviction by the Alderman of the Ward, or his Deputy: The Pariſh of Allhallows, London Wall, do likewiſe hereby promiſe a Reward of TEN POUNDS to any Perſon making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid (except as before excepted) to be paid by the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the ſaid Pariſh, upon Conviction as above.

Broad-ſtreet, November 21, 1775.

WHereas ſeveral Attempts of Houſe-breaking have of late been made within this Ward, to the great Terror of it's Inhabitants; for whoſe Security, it is my Inclination, as well as Duty, to exert my utmoſt Endeavours to prevent the ſame in Future: I therefore hereby offer a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS, for the apprehending and bringing to Juſtice any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall commit, or attempt to commit, the Firſt Burglary within this Ward, for the Space of Twelve Months, to be paid on Conviction of the Offender or Offenders by

Benj. Hopkins.